

London to Paris 24 2016 - Terms & Conditions

These Conditions of Entry serve as a contract between 'the Organiser'; Action Challenge UK Ltd, company number 3825838, trading premises United House, North Road, London N7 9DP and "you" the Participant (as named on the registration form), and the 'Charity' Scope, relating to London to Paris 24 – 'the Event'.

Entering the Event

- (a) The Event involves sustained physical exertion and cycling at night. Prior to registering to the event you must be satisfied that you are fit and able to take part in the challenge and that there are no medical or other reasons which would reasonably preclude your participation. If in doubt you must consult your Doctor or other medical professional before registering.
- (b) You must be at least 16 years old on the date of the Event to participate, if you are under the age of 18 you will be required to fill in and return to the Charity, Scope a signed consent form from your parent/legal guardian.
- (c) You must register to the Event via the online booking form & pay a non-refundable Registration Fee per rider; you will receive an email confirming your payment and registration
- (d) By registering to the Event you accept the terms of the Fundraising Target and agree to donate or fundraise through sponsorship at least £1000 per rider (or more) for the Charity of which ideally all, and no less than £600, must be received by the Charity by 22 April 2016, the outstanding £400 be received by 26 August 2016.
- (e) For those classed as corporate/VIP groups; the Charity, Scope, will offer to brand the group's L2P24 Cycle Jerseys with a corporate logo and team name (if applicable).
- (f) Your package travel arrangements, including any transport and accommodation on the Event are fully protected under the 1992 Standard Travel Package Regulations, and via an appropriate Travel Insurance Bond Association details of which are available on request from the Organiser.
- (g) You agree to supply the Organiser with any information as may be requested from time to time in a prompt and timely manner.
- (h) You agree to abide by the Event Rules as issued and where updated and notified to you.
- (i) You have read and understood the Data Protection question on the registration form.
- (j) You undertake to abide by any fundraising guidelines as may be issued by your the Charity in respect of your fundraising activities.
- (k) You will act responsibly and honestly at all times when representing the Event and will not bring through your actions the Event, us, or the Charity into disrepute.
- (l) You participate within the Event entirely at your own risk.

2. Event information

Upon registering to the Event you will be sent a fundraising Information Pack by the Charity, and all other information relating to the Event will be detailed within the Participant Area of the Event website (www.london2paris24.com); you will be provided with access codes to the Participant Area, and it is your responsibility to read and act on the information supplied.

3. Cost & fundraising

- (a) The cost of you taking part in the challenge is partly covered by the £1000 Fundraising Target specified by the Charity. Provided that you have complied with their arrangements and met or exceeded their minimum targets the Charity will pay to us the cost associated with your participation on this Event. You must make it clear to all your prospective sponsors that a part of your sponsorship money goes towards payment for you to take part in the Event.
- (b) If you are unable to reach the Fundraising Target on the instalment due dates, you may have to forfeit your place on the Event, unless the charity agrees otherwise with you and the organiser.
- (c) All fundraising monies should be paid as specified by the Charity in the information pack they send you
- (d) If the Charity fails to pay the organiser the cost of your place on the Event within the time scale that they agreed with the Organiser, the Organiser reserves the right cancel your place.
- (f) Should you not be able to take up your place on the Event for whatever reason, or choose not to for whatever reason, any monies paid to the Organiser by the Charity in respect of your place on the Event will be only refunded to the charity after deducting a cancellation charge which is agreed between the Charity and the Organiser. Any arrangements for the Charity returning sponsorship or fundraising to individual donors are strictly between you and the Charity.

4. Itinerary changes

There may be minor changes to your itinerary. Should there be a material change prior to departure which is not a result of force majeure (a departure timing change of more than 12 hours for example) then the Organiser will inform you as soon as is practicable and in this case you may either agree to proceed with the new itinerary or cancel your participation in the Event, in which case you will receive a full refund of any Registration Fee paid. The arrangements for any refunds to fundraising donors are strictly between the Charity and you in this instance.

5. Changes made by you

Any change must be notified by you to the Organiser by email, by the person named on the registration form completed at the time of booking. All reasonable changes requested are free of charge; however some changes that you request may incur an administration fee which you will be advised at the time of request before electing to proceed with the change.

6. Cancellation by you

You may cancel your participation on the Event at any time by providing e mailed notice to the Charity. Your Registration Fee remains non-refundable; however the Organiser or the Charity may invite you to transfer this Fee onto another challenge operated by the Organiser at a time in the future but are under no obligation to offer such. In the event of any cancellation you undertake to inform the Charity and the arrangements for any refunds to sponsorship donors are strictly between the Charity and you in this instance. No payments compensating for losses or costs you incur in the case of a cancellation will be made.

7. Cancellation by the Organiser

(a) The Organiser reserves the right to cancel the Event whether for operational reasons, force Majeure, or other reasons, in which case a full refund of the Registration Fee paid by you will be made within 6 weeks of issuing the cancellation notice being issued, or you will be offered a place on a re-scheduled event.

(b) The Organiser will not make any payments compensating for losses or costs you incur in the case of a cancellation and we exclude and limit all such liability to the full extent permitted under law.

(c) The Organiser does not accept liability for any delays in your travel arrangements, or reasonable changes to the Event itinerary in circumstances of Force Majeure. Force Majeure means any unusual or unforeseen circumstances beyond our reasonable control including but not limited to an act of God, war, accident, road closures, failure of power supply, abnormal weather, fire, explosion, or labour disturbance.

8. The Organisers' obligations to you

(a) The Organiser will provide medical support on the Event, and the prime role of the medical support teams will always be to deal with genuine medical emergencies as their priority when and where they are required to do so. You are advised to bring your own small personal medical kit and appropriate clothes and kit for the prevailing weather.

(b) The Organiser will provide food and water on the Event, but it is your responsibility to remain fed and hydrated, and you are advised to bring a selection of your own snacks.

(c) Whilst the Event route will be signed and a route card will be provided to you, it is your responsibility not to get lost and you must carry a fully charged mobile phone.

(d) The Organiser will provide bike mechanics on the Event to assist with breakdowns and punctures, but are under no contractual obligation to assist you, and you must bring spare inner tubes and a small tool kit as advised within the Event kit and equipment list.

(e) The Organiser will provide bike-racking at some locations, but accepts no responsibility for the safe keeping of your bike, and you are advised to bring your own security lock.

(f) The Organiser will manage the exit of participants who drop-out from the Event, having started it, in a way that they deem is correct, safe and relevant for the overall management of the Event and is under no obligation to make or provide alternate travel arrangements in the case of on-Event drop-out.

(g) The Organiser accepts liability for negligent acts and/or omissions by its our employees, agents, suppliers or sub contractors whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of any part of the Event that we are contractually obliged to provide. The Organiser will therefore pay such damages as may be awarded under English law.

(h) The Organiser excludes and limits all other liability to the extent permitted under law and damages are not payable where any failure to perform the contract is due neither to any fault on the part of the Organiser or a supplier of any part of your arrangements associated with the Event, or is attributable to you or unforeseen or unavoidable actions of a third party unconnected with the provision of services associated with the Event, or a force majeure circumstances beyond the Organiser's control.

9. Insurance You agree to read and abide by the Event Insurance Advice as issued as a separate document on the Event website and accept that bike insurance is not supplied.

10. Law and jurisdiction These terms and conditions shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. Any dispute which may arise between the parties concerning these terms and conditions shall be exclusively determined by the English Courts.